

WITH PUBLIC TRANSPORT

You would like to travel to the Finance Symposium and want to arrive comfortably, inexpensively and environmentally friendly?

You can travel by express train (ICE/IC/EC) to Jenbach (20 km) or Wörgl (25 km). Regional trains stop in Brixlegg or Rattenberg. From there there are scheduled buses to Alpbach or you can book a connecting transfer via Alpbach Tourismus GmbH.

You can still book cheap Sparschiene tickets at www.oebb.at.

Now you can register as a new customer with an e-mail address and book your journey to the 37th Alpbach Finance Symposium in a relaxed way. Please note that each person must create a new ÖBB account specifically for this congress. An already existing ÖBB account cannot be used because each e-mail address can only be used once in the ÖBB booking system.

By registering, you will receive a 22% congress discount on the ÖBB standard fare, 10% on the international standard fare and a special price for the ÖBB Nightjet when booking. Your customer account for the congress will be automatically deleted after the end of the event and thus after your return journey.

Please note that the respective ÖBB cancellation conditions of the selected fare also apply in case of cancellation of the event.”

All information about the DB event ticket can be found here.

BY CAR

The fastest way to reach Alpbach is via the Inn Valley motorway A12 (toll road). Take the motorway to the exit Kramsach – from there it is just 9 km to Alpbach. A toll free alternative if coming from Munich is via the Tergernsee/Achensee pass.
